Communication to Govt.

Rec'd.

It is learnt that Diwan Nagabhushanam of Chidambaram has given a decent donation for the construction of the Sri Ganapathi temple, & in order that the management & performance of Puja, it is learnt that Govt. have to give an annual cash grant to the temple in the absence of other endowments sufficient for its maintenance. As the reservation of the available cash grant exists in the 145 of 31-32 [The necessary proposals in the matter is awaited from the M.C.]

GS 12/1

[illegible] before according sanction to the construction of the temple at the site suggested whether 28-2 may not be kept Ganapathi Temple in view, as big donations previously reported by the M.C. The views of the M.C. may also be ascertained &c.

Kind reference is invited to para 2 of P.U.D. If the image of Veeranarayana is of archaeological interest and is worth preserving and conserving, the present proposal of transfer will not arise. The M.C. may be asked to submit his report in the matter and credit the grant to the Govt. Fund mentioned, if approved.
